

Phase II

- Activity VI – Training on international legal framework

The aim of this session is to train key stakeholders on international systems to protect appellations, namely through the guidance of a representative from the WTO. The training will take place during the final workshop to be held in Tbilisi on 27 November 2007.